
Second Session, Forty-second Parliament
70 Elizabeth II, 2021
Legislative Assembly of British Columbia

BILL 4

BUDGET MEASURES
IMPLEMENTATION ACT, 2021

Honourable Selina Robinson
Minister of Finance

Explanatory Notes

SECTION 1: [Assessment Act, section 1] adds a definition of “electronic transmission”.

SECTION 2: [Assessment Act, section 3]

- removes the requirement to mail a notice of assessment and replaces it with a requirement to deliver an assessment notice;
- makes a housekeeping amendment;
- broadens the means by which an assessment notice may be delivered to include electronic transmission.

SECTIONS

3 AND 4: [Assessment Act, sections 6 and 11] are consequential to amendments made by this Bill to section 3 of the Act.

BILL 4 – 2021

IMPLEMENTATION ACT, 2021

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:

Assessment Act

1 Section 1 (1) of the Assessment Act, R.S.B.C. 1996, c. 20, is amended by adding the following definition:

“electronic transmission” means

- (a) the transmission of a notice by electronic means, or
- (b) the provision of access to a notice by electronic means; .

2 Section 3 is amended

(a) in subsection (1) (b) by striking out “mail a notice of assessment” and substituting “deliver an assessment notice”,

(b) in subsection (3) by striking out “notice of assessment” and substituting “assessment notice”,

(c) in subsection (7) by striking out “not known to the assessor or is not recorded” and substituting “not known to the assessor and is not recorded”, and

(d) by adding the following subsection:

- (8) The assessment notice must be delivered to the person named in the assessment roll
 - (a) by mail at the address on the assessment roll, or
 - (b) by electronic transmission, if the person provides authorization under section 65.1 (1) (a), using the email address provided under section 65.1 (2).

3 Section 6 is amended

(a) in subsection (3) by striking out “mail an assessment notice” and substituting “deliver an assessment notice”, and

SECTIONS

3 AND 4: [Assessment Act, sections 6 and 11 – continued]

SECTION 5: [Assessment Act, section 15]

- makes a housekeeping amendment;
- removes the requirement for service of a notice to be in person or by mail.

SECTION 6: [Assessment Act, section 21] is consequential to amendments made by this Bill to section 3 of the Act.

SECTION 7: [Assessment Act, section 65.1] allows a person to authorize the British Columbia Assessment Authority to use electronic transmission for delivery of notices under the Act and requires the person to provide an email address for this purpose.

SECTION 8: [Assessment Act, section 68] ensures that the requirement to delete the names of individuals from an assessment roll does not apply to an assessment roll that is accessible through any electronic information service used by the assessment authority.

SECTION 9: [Carbon Tax Act, section 57] removes the requirement to seek leave from the British Columbia Court of Appeal to appeal a decision of the British Columbia Supreme Court.

SECTION 10: [Carbon Tax Act, section 71] adds authority for the disclosure of certain information for fiscal policy formulation or evaluation.

(b) in subsection (5) by striking out “assessment notice sent by the assessor” and substituting “assessment notice delivered by the assessor”.

4 Section 11 (a) (iii) is amended by striking out “mail the notice” and substituting “deliver the notice”.

5 Section 15 (2) is repealed and the following substituted:

(2) At any time, an authorized person may by written notice require a person who owns, occupies or disposes of property to provide to the authorized person, within 21 days of the date on which the notice is sent or a longer period specified in the notice, information for any purpose related to the administration of this Act.

6 Section 21 (5) is amended by striking out “following receipt of the assessment notice” and substituting “following delivery of the assessment notice”.

7 The following section is added to Part 8:

Authorization for electronic transmission of notices

65.1 (1) A person may,

(a) if the assessment authority provides for electronic transmission, authorize, in writing, the assessment authority to electronically transmit a notice under this Act to the person, and

(b) at any time, in writing, withdraw the authorization provided under paragraph (a).

(2) If a person provides an authorization under subsection (1) (a), the person must provide to the assessment authority an email address for the purposes of electronic transmission.

8 Section 68 (2) (a) (iii) is amended by striking out “through the B.C. OnLine information service” and substituting “through the B.C. OnLine information service or through another electronic information service used by the assessment authority”.

Carbon Tax Act

9 Section 57 (7) of the Carbon Tax Act, S.B.C. 2008, c. 40, is repealed.

10 Section 71 (1) is amended by adding the following paragraph:

(c.1) to an official or employee of the ministry of the minister for the purposes of the formulation or evaluation of fiscal policy, .

SECTIONS

11 AND 12: [Carbon Tax Act, Schedules 1 and 2] extend the application of the existing tax rates for fuels and combustibles until March 31, 2022 and apply the next rate increase on April 1, 2022.

SECTIONS

13 TO 15: [Employer Health Tax Act, Part 2.1] establish an increased employment credit.

11 The Table in Schedule 1 is amended

(a) by repealing the heading to column 11 and substituting the following:

Rate of tax for the period starting April 1, 2020 and ending March 31, 2022 , and “normal redetermination period” means the period referred to in section 30.09 (1) (b) [determinations – general rule];

“public institution” has the same meaning as in section 125.7 of the Income Tax Act (Canada), but does not include the following:

- (a) a corporation that meets all of the following conditions:
 - (i) the corporation is a corporation described in section 149 (1) (d.5) of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
 - (ii) not less than 90% of the shares, or the capital, of the corporation are owned by one or more Aboriginal governments, as defined in section 241 (10) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or similar Indigenous governing bodies, described in section 149 (1) (c) of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
 - (iii) the corporation carries on a business;
- (b) a corporation that meets all of the following conditions:
 - (i) the corporation is a corporation described in section 149 (1) (d.6) of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
 - (ii) all of the shares, except directors’ qualifying shares, or the capital, of the corporation are owned by one or more of
 - (A) an Aboriginal government, as defined in section 241 (10) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or a similar Indigenous governing body, described in section 149 (1) (c) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or
 - (B) a corporation described in this paragraph or paragraph (a);
 - (iii) the corporation carries on a business;

“qualifying period” means the period beginning on October 1, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2020;

“qualifying period remuneration” means the total of all eligible remuneration paid by an employer to or on behalf of an eligible employee in respect of all weeks in the qualifying period;

“registered political party” means

- (a) a political party registered under Part 9 [Registration of Political Parties and Constituency Associations] of the Election Act, or
- (b) a registered party, as defined in the Canada Elections Act;

“remuneration” does not include any of the following:

- (a) an amount received or deemed to have been received by an employee under section 7 of the Income Tax Act (Canada);
- (b) an amount, in respect of the base period or the qualifying period, paid by an employer to or on behalf of an employee after June 30, 2021;

- (c) an amount paid to or on behalf of an employee in lieu of notice of termination;

“report for work in British Columbia” means, in respect of an employee,

- (a) to work in person at a permanent establishment of the employee’s employer in British Columbia,
- (b) to be physically present in British Columbia for the performance of the employee’s duties and be paid from or through a permanent establishment of the employer in British Columbia, or
- (c) if the employee is on paid leave from the employer,
 - (i) to have worked for the employer as described in paragraph (a) immediately before the start of the leave, or
 - (ii) to have worked for the employer as described in paragraph (b) immediately before the start of the leave and to be paid, while on leave, from or through a permanent establishment of the employer in British Columbia.

Employer eligibility for increased employment credit

- 30.02 (1) Subject to subsection (2), the following employers are not eligible for an increased employment credit:
- (a) a registered political party;
 - (b) a public institution.
- (2) An employer that operates a private school or private college, within the meaning of section 8901.1 of the Income Tax Regulations (Canada), is eligible for an increased employment credit.
- (3) A partnership is not eligible for an increased employment credit if 50% or more of the fair market value of all interests in the partnership is held, at any time during the period beginning on July 1, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2020, directly or indirectly, by one or more persons that are
- (a) a registered political party, or
 - (b) a public institution, other than an Aboriginal government, as defined in section 241 (10) of the Income Tax Act (Canada), or a similar Indigenous governing body, described in section 149 (1) (c) of the Income Tax Act (Canada).

Eligible employee

- 30.03 (1) Subject to subsection (2), an employee is an eligible employee of an employer for the purposes of this Part when the employee is reporting for work in British Columbia during the base period or the qualifying period.

- (2) An employee is not an eligible employee if both of the following circumstances apply:
 - (a) the employee does not deal with the employer at arm's length;
 - (b) the employee was not an employee of the employer on July 1, 2020.

Eligible remuneration

- 30.04 (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3) and for the purposes of this Part, eligible remuneration is remuneration paid by an employer to or on behalf of an eligible employee in respect of all days in a week in the base period or the qualifying period, as applicable, on which the employee reported for work in British Columbia.
- (2) The remuneration described in subsection (1) is deemed to be the lesser of
 - (a) the remuneration paid by the employer to or on behalf of the employee in respect of the days in the week on which the employee reported for work in British Columbia, and
 - (b) $1 129.33.
 - (3) If the base period or the qualifying period begins or ends during a week,
 - (a) the amount under subsection (2) (a) only includes the remuneration paid to or on behalf of the employee in respect of the days of that week that fall within the relevant period, and
 - (b) the amount under subsection (2) (b) is prorated for that week by the number of days of that week that fall within the relevant period.

Associated employers

- 30.05 (1) Despite section 14 (2) [application of Division 3], in determining whether two or more employers are associated with one another for the purposes of this Part, sections 15 [application of federal provisions – associated employers] and 16 (1), (2) and (3) (a) [other rules – associated employers] apply.
- (2) For the purposes of this Part, if two or more employers are associated with one another and employ the same eligible employee in the base period or the qualifying period,
 - (a) only one of the associated employers may claim an increased employment credit in respect of that employee,
 - (b) the associated employer that claims an increased employment credit in respect of that employee is deemed to have paid all of the remuneration paid to or on behalf of that employee in respect of the base period or the qualifying period by all of the associated employers, and
 - (c) the associated employer that claims the increased employment credit in respect of that employee must file with the commissioner a written agreement described in subsection (3).

SECTIONS

- (3) A written agreement referred to in subsection (2) (c) must
 - (a) describe which of the associated employers will claim an increased employment credit with respect to the employee who is employed by two or more of the associated employers, and
 - (b) be in the form, and contain any further information, required by the commissioner.

Application for increased employment credit

- 30.06 (1) An employer that wishes to claim an increased employment credit must
 - (a) file an application electronically in the form and manner required by the commissioner, and
 - (b) file with the application any other information or records required by the commissioner.
- (2) An application under this section must be filed on or before December 31, 2021.

Determination of increased employment credit

- 30.07 (1) On receiving an application under section 30.06, the commissioner must examine the application, and any other information or records filed with the application, and determine
 - (a) whether the applicant is eligible for an increased employment credit, and
 - (b) if the applicant is eligible, the amount of the applicant's increased employment credit in accordance with section 30.08.
- (2) In making a determination, the commissioner is not bound by an application filed under this Part or any other information or records supplied under this Act.
- (3) Subject to being amended or varied on appeal or by a redetermination, a determination is valid and binding despite any error, defect or omission in the determination or in procedure.

Calculation of increased employment credit

- 30.08 (1) The amount of the increased employment credit is determined by the following formula:

$$\text{amount} = (\text{qualifying amount} - \text{base amount}) \times 15\%$$ where qualifying amount = the total of all qualifying period remuneration paid to all of an employer's eligible employees;

base amount = the total of all base period remuneration paid to all of an employer's eligible employees.

- (2) An overpayment of the amount calculated under subsection (1) on account of an employer's liability under this Act for the 2020 calendar year is deemed to have arisen if
 - (a) an employer has applied under section 30.06 [application for increased employment credit] for an increased employment credit,
 - (b) the employer is eligible for an increased employment credit, and
 - (c) the amount calculated under subsection (1) is greater than zero.
- (3) A deemed overpayment under subsection (2) arises even if no tax is payable under this Act by the employer for the 2020 calendar year.

Determinations – general rule

- 30.09 (1) The commissioner may make a determination
- (a) at any time, if
 - (i) the applicant, or a person filing the applicant's application for an increased employment credit, has made any misrepresentation or committed any fraud in filing the application or in supplying, at any time, other information or records, or
 - (ii) a waiver filed under subsection (2) by the applicant is in effect at that time, or
 - (b) within 6 years after the date of the original notice of determination, in any other case.
- (2) An applicant may file a waiver with the commissioner before the expiration of the normal redetermination period.
 - (3) A waiver filed under subsection (2) continues in effect until 6 months after the applicant files with the commissioner a notice revoking the waiver.
 - (4) A waiver filed under subsection (2) and a notice filed under subsection (3) must be filed in the form and manner, and containing the information, required by the commissioner.
 - (5) Despite subsection (1), a determination to which subsection (1) (a) (i) or (ii) applies may be made after the applicant's normal redetermination period, but only to the extent that the determination can reasonably be considered as relating to,
 - (a) if subsection (1) (a) (i) applies, any misrepresentation made by the applicant, or a person filing the applicant's application for an increased employment credit, or any fraud committed by the applicant or that other person in filing the application or in supplying any other information or records under this Act, or
 - (b) if subsection (1) (a) (ii) applies, a matter specified in the waiver filed with the commissioner.

- (6) The authority of the commissioner to make a determination under section 30.10 [consequential determinations – income taxes] or 30.11 [consequential redeterminations after appeal]
 - (a) is in addition to the authority to make a determination under section 30.07 [determination of increased employment credit] or this section,
 - (b) is not limited by the authority to make a determination under section 30.07 [determination of increased employment credit] or this section, and
 - (c) does not limit the authority to make a determination under section 30.07 [determination of increased employment credit] or this section.

Consequential determinations – income taxes

- 30.10 (1) Subsection (2) applies in relation to an applicant under this Part if
- (a) the applicant is issued a notice of assessment, reassessment or additional assessment under the Income Tax Act (Canada), and
 - (b) an amount relevant in calculating the amount of the applicant's increased employment credit would be changed if a determination were made under this Part.
- (2) If this subsection applies,
- (a) the applicant must file with the commissioner
 - (i) a notice, in the form and manner and containing the information, required by the commissioner, and
 - (ii) any other information or records required by the commissioner to be filed with the notice, and
 - (b) the commissioner may, subject to subsection (4), make a determination, but only to the extent that the determination can reasonably be considered as relating to the assessment, reassessment or additional assessment under the Income Tax Act (Canada).
- (3) The applicant must file the notice, and any other information and records, referred to in subsection (2) (a) on or before the later of
- (a) September 30, 2021, and
 - (b) the date that is 90 days after the applicant receives the notice referred to in subsection (1) (a).
- (4) The commissioner may make a determination under subsection (2) (b) only before the later of
- (a) the last day of the normal redetermination period, and
 - (b) the end of the day that is one year after the day that is the earlier of
 - (i) the day that the commissioner is notified under subsection (2) (a), and

- (ii) the day that the commissioner is otherwise notified of the assessment, reassessment or additional assessment under the Income Tax Act (Canada).

Consequential redeterminations after appeal

- 30.11 (1) This section applies in relation to a person if
- (a) a court has, on the disposition of an appeal by the person in respect of a determination,
 - (i) allowed the appeal,
 - (ii) varied the decision from which the appeal was made, or
 - (iii) referred the decision back to the commissioner for reconsideration, and
 - (b) any further appeal is disposed of or the time for filing any further appeal has expired.
- (2) If this section applies in relation to a person, the commissioner must make a redetermination in accordance with the decision of the court.

Notice of determination

- 30.12 (1) After the commissioner makes a determination in respect of an applicant, the commissioner must give the applicant a notice of determination.
- (2) Despite section 92 (4) [how and when documents are given by commissioner], if a notice of determination is sent by ordinary mail, registered mail or electronic mail, the notice, for the purposes of this Act, is deemed to have been given on the date of that notice.

Payment of increased employment credit

- 30.13 (1) Without limiting section 69 [refund of overpayment], if an overpayment is deemed to have arisen under section 30.08 [calculation of increased employment credit], the minister, on the certificate of the commissioner as to facts, must refund out of the consolidated revenue fund to the employer the amount of the overpayment.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), if there is an amount owing to the government under this Act by the employer, the amount overpaid must first be applied in satisfaction of the amount owing, and notice must be given to the employer, accompanied by the refund of the amount overpaid and remaining unapplied.
- (3) Despite subsections (1) and (2), if the amount to be refunded under subsection (1) or (2) is less than $10, the amount overpaid, and, in the case of subsection (2), remaining unapplied, is deemed to be zero.
- (4) The amount payable under subsection (1) must be paid by electronic funds transfer.

- (5) Despite the Financial Administration Act and the Interest on Overdue Accounts Payable Regulation, B.C. Reg. 215/83, no interest is payable by the government with respect to the amount payable under subsection (1).

Anti-avoidance rule

30.14 In applying section 53 [anti-avoidance rule] for the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

- (a) a reference in that section to a “tax benefit” includes an increased employment credit to which an employer is not entitled, or an increased employment credit amount that is greater than the amount to which an employer is entitled;
- (b) in the definition of “tax consequences”, the reference to “BC remuneration” is to be read as a reference to “increased employment credit”;
- (c) in subsection (3), the reference to “by assessment” is to be read as a reference to “by determination”.

Gross negligence – increased employment credit

30.15 (1) If an employer knowingly, or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence, makes, or participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the making of, a false statement or an omission in an increased employment credit application or other record filed or supplied or in information supplied under this Part, the employer is liable to a penalty equal to the greater of

- (a) $100, and
- (b) 50% of the amount by which the amount of an increased employment credit calculated on the basis of the false statement or omission exceeds the amount of the increased employment credit calculated on the basis of accurate and complete information.

(2) An employer must pay to the government interest on a penalty under subsection (1) from the date on which the application or other record was filed or supplied, or the date on which the information was supplied, until the date of payment.

Misrepresentation by third party – increased employment credit

30.16 In applying section 163.2 (5) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) for the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

- (a) section 163.2 (5) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) is to be read as if the reference to “subsection 163 (2)” were a reference to section 30.15 [gross negligence – increased employment credit] of this Act;

- (b) section 163.2 (5) of the Income Tax Act (Canada) is to be read as if the reference to “a return filed for the purposes of this Act” were a reference to “an application for an increased employment credit or other record filed or supplied or in information supplied under this Part”.

Excess refund – increased employment credit

- 30.17 (1) If it appears from an inspection, audit, examination or investigation or from other information available to the commissioner that, under section 30.13 (1) [payment of increased employment credit], an amount has been refunded to an employer in excess of the amount to which the employer was entitled under this Part, the excess is deemed to be an amount that became payable to the government by the employer on the day on which the amount was refunded.
- (2) If an amount applied under section 30.13 (2) [payment of increased employment credit] to an amount owing by an employer is in excess of the amount to which the employer is entitled as a refund under this Act, this section applies in respect of the amount applied as if that amount had been refunded to the employer on the day the amount was applied to the amount owing.
- (3) The commissioner may at any time assess a person for any amount payable under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) In applying Division 3 [Assessments] of Part 3 [Administration and Enforcement] for the purposes of this Part, “assessable amount”, in relation to a person, is deemed to include an amount payable under this section by the person.

Interest

- 30.18 If an amount is deemed under section 30.17 to be an amount payable by an employer, the employer is liable to pay interest on the amount from the date the amount became payable under that section until the date of payment.

Appeals

- 30.19 (1) In applying Part 4 [Appeals] for the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:
- (a) Part 4 is to be read as if the references to an “assessment” were references to a determination under this Part;
- (b) section 75 (5) [appeal to minister] is to be read as if the reference to section 49 [assessments of other amounts payable] were a reference to section 30.17 [excess refund – increased employment credit].
- (2) Despite section 75 (2) [appeal to minister], for the purposes of this Part, written notice of an appeal must be given to the minister after April 20, 2021 and on or before the later of
- (a) September 30, 2021, and

13 TO 15: [Employer Health Tax Act, Part 2.1 – continued]

- (b) the date that is 90 days after the date of the notice of determination in respect of the matter being appealed.

14 The following sections are added to Part 2.1:

Offences – increased employment credit

30.20 Without limiting section 99 [general offences], a person who does any of the following commits an offence:

- (a) destroys, alters, mutilates, hides or otherwise disposes of a record, to obtain or claim an increased employment credit to which a person is not entitled, or in an amount that is greater than that amount to which a person is entitled, under this Part;
- (b) makes, or participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the making of, a false or deceptive entry in a record related to an application for an increased employment credit under this Part;
- (c) makes or uses, or participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the making or use of, a record in a false or deceptive manner in order to obtain or claim an increased employment credit to which a person is not entitled, or in an amount greater than that amount to which a person is entitled, under this Part;
- (d) wilfully, in any manner, attempts to obtain or claim an increased employment credit to which a person is not entitled, or in an amount that is greater than the amount to which a person is entitled, under this Part;
- (e) conspires with any person to do anything described in paragraphs (a) to (d).

Penalties – increased employment credit

30.21 In applying section 100 [penalties] for the purposes of this Part, the following rules apply:

- (a) a reference to “an offence under section 99” is to be read to include an offence under section 30.20;
- (b) a reference to “the amount of tax that was sought to be evaded” is to be read as “the amount of increased employment credit to which a person is not entitled, or that is greater than that amount to which a person is entitled”.

15 The following sections are added to Part 2.1:

Assessment of assessable amount

30.22 (1) Subject to subsection (2), the commissioner may assess an employer for an assessable amount at any time after receiving an application under this Part from the employer.

SECTION 16: [Employer Health Tax Act, section 76] removes the requirement to seek leave from the British Columbia Court of Appeal to appeal a decision of the British Columbia Supreme Court.

SECTION 17: [Employer Health Tax Act, section 90]

- adds an override of other enactments and laws that allow for certain information to be provided or used or for access to it;
- adds a requirement that other enactments, under which certain information may be provided or its inspection allowed for, must be prescribed.

SECTION 18: [Employer Health Tax Act, section 107.01] authorizes regulations made in respect of the increased employment credit to be retroactive.

SECTION 19: [Forest Act, section 142.91] removes the requirement to seek leave from the British Columbia Court of Appeal to appeal a decision of the British Columbia Supreme Court.

- (2) In applying section 50 (1) [assessments of penalties and interest] for the purposes of this Part,
- (a) a reference to section 46 [assessments – general rules] is to be read as a reference to section 30.09 [determinations – general rule],
 - (b) a reference to section 47 [consequential assessments – income taxes] is to be read as a reference to section 30.10 [consequential determinations – income taxes], and
 - (c) a reference to section 48 [consequential reassessments after appeal] is to be read as a reference to section 30.11 [consequential redeterminations after appeal].

Information sharing

30.23 An applicant under this Part is deemed to be a taxpayer for the purposes of sections 90 [communication of information] and 91 [information-sharing agreements].

Repeal by regulation

SECTIONS

39 TO 41: [Income Tax Act, Part 15] provide for the recovery benefit.

39 The following Part is added:

PART 15 – RECOVERY BENEFIT

Definitions

240 (1) In this Part:

“cohabiting spouse or common-law partner” has the same meaning as in section 122.6 of the federal Act;

“commissioner” means the Commissioner of Income Tax;

“determination” includes a redetermination;

“eligible relation”, in relation to an individual, means

- (a) the eligible spouse of the individual,
- (b) another individual who, on December 18, 2020, is the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual, if that cohabiting spouse or common-law partner is, but for section 241 (1) (c) to (e) and (4), eligible for the recovery benefit, or
- (c) a child of the individual, if,
 - (i) for the month of January or February 2021, the child is a dependent child, within the meaning of the Employment and Assistance Act or the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act, of the individual, or
 - (ii) on December 18, 2020,
 - (A) the child is less than 19 years of age,
 - (B) the child ordinarily resides with the individual,
 - (C) the individual is the parent who primarily fulfils the responsibility for the care and upbringing of the child and is not a shared-custody parent in respect of the child, and
 - (D) the child is not a person in respect of whom a special allowance under the Children’s Special Allowances Act (Canada) is payable for December 2020;

“eligible spouse”, in relation to an individual, means, subject to subsection (2), another individual who, for the month of January or February 2021, is the spouse, within the meaning of the Employment and Assistance Act or the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act, of the individual;

39 TO 41: [Income Tax Act, Part 15 – continued]

“family income”, in relation to an individual, means the total of

- (a) the individual’s relevant income for the 2019 taxation year, and
- (b) the relevant income of the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual for the 2019 taxation year, if the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner is the individual’s qualified relation for the purposes of determining the amount of the recovery benefit under section 241 (1);

“individual” does not include a trust;

“qualified relation”, in relation to an individual, means

- (a) another individual who, on December 18, 2020, is the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual, if the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner is, but for section 241 (1) (c) to (e) and (4), eligible for the recovery benefit, or
- (b) a child of the individual, if, on December 18, 2020,
 - (i) the child is less than 19 years of age,
 - (ii) the child ordinarily resides with the individual,
 - (iii) the individual is the parent who primarily fulfils the responsibility for the care and upbringing of the child and is not a shared-custody parent in respect of the child,
 - (iv) the child is not eligible for the recovery benefit,
 - (v) the individual does not have a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner who is, but for section 241 (4), eligible for the recovery benefit, and
 - (vi) the child is not a person in respect of whom a special allowance under the Children’s Special Allowances Act (Canada) is payable for December 2020;

“recovery benefit” means the recovery benefit under this Part, or under section 241 (1) or (3) if specified, for the 2019 taxation year;

“relevant income”, in relation to an individual for the 2019 taxation year, means,

- (a) if section 114 of the federal Act applies to the individual in respect of the 2019 taxation year, the amount determined under section 114 (a) of the federal Act in respect of the individual for the 2019 taxation year,
- (b) if the individual was not resident in Canada at any time in the 2019 taxation year, the amount that would have been the individual’s income for the 2019 taxation year had the individual been resident in Canada throughout the 2019 taxation year,
- (c) in any other case but subject to paragraph (d), the individual’s income for the 2019 taxation year, or

SECTIONS

- (d) if the individual became bankrupt in 2019, the individual's income for all taxation years that end in 2019, including the individual's income for the taxation year before, during and after the period of bankruptcy and any amount determined under paragraph (a), (b) or (c);

“shared-custody parent” has the same meaning as in section 122.6 of the federal Act except that the reference to “qualified dependant” in that section is to be read as referring to a child who, on December 18, 2020, is less than 19 years of age.

- (2) For the purposes of this Part, an individual is not an eligible spouse if information required by the commissioner in respect of that individual as an eligible spouse is not received by the commissioner on or before June 30, 2021.

Eligibility for recovery benefit

- 241 (1) Subject to subsection (2), an individual is eligible for the recovery benefit if the individual meets all the following requirements:
- (a) the individual is resident in British Columbia on December 18, 2020;
 - (b) the individual, on December 18, 2020,
 - (i) is at least 19 years of age, or
 - (ii) is less than 19 years of age and is
 - (A) a parent residing with the individual's child who is a qualified relation of the individual, or
 - (B) a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of another individual;
 - (c) the individual
 - (i) has filed a return of income under section 150 of the federal Act for the 2019 taxation year, or
 - (ii) becomes resident in Canada after December 31, 2019;
 - (d) if the individual has a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner on December 18, 2020,
 - (i) the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner has filed a return of income under section 150 of the federal Act for the 2019 taxation year,
 - (ii) the individual has claimed a deduction under section 118 (1) (a) of the federal Act for the 2019 taxation year in respect of the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner, or
 - (iii) the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner was not resident in Canada at any time in the 2019 taxation year;
 - (e) the individual has applied for the recovery benefit in accordance with section 243 of this Act.

SECTIONS

39 TO 41: [Income Tax Act, Part 15 – continued]

- (2) An individual is not eligible for the recovery benefit under subsection (1) if the individual
 - (a) is eligible for the recovery benefit under subsection (3),
 - (b) is, on December 18, 2020, a person described in section 149 (1) (a) or (b) of the federal Act,
 - (c) is deceased before December 18, 2020, or
 - (d) is confined to a prison or similar institution for a period of at least 90 days that includes December 18, 2020.
- (3) An individual is eligible for the recovery benefit if
 - (a) the individual receives any of the following for the month of January or February 2021:
 - (i) income assistance under the Employment and Assistance Act, other than a child who receives assistance under the authority of the Child in the Home of a Relative Program Transition Regulation, B.C. Reg. 48/2010;
 - (ii) a Provincial senior’s supplement under the Employment and Assistance Act;
 - (iii) disability assistance under the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act, other than a child who receives assistance under the authority of the Child in the Home of a Relative Program Transition Regulation, B.C. Reg. 48/2010;
 - (iv) hardship assistance under the Employment and Assistance Act or the Employment and Assistance for Persons with Disabilities Act, and
 - (b) the commissioner receives, on or before June 30, 2021, information regarding the receipt of an amount described in paragraph (a) by the individual.
- (4) Despite subsections (1) and (3) but subject to subsection (5), if an individual is the eligible spouse or cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of another individual on December 18, 2020 and both of those individuals would be, but for this subsection, eligible for the recovery benefit, only the individual that the commissioner designates is eligible for the recovery benefit.
- (5) If an individual or the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual has a child referred to in paragraph (c) (i) of the definition of “eligible relation”, subsection (4) of this section does not apply unless the individual and the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner are the eligible spouses of each other.

SECTIONS

- (6) If a child is an eligible relation of more than one individual, or is an eligible relation of an individual and the qualified relation of another individual, and those individuals would be, but for this subsection, eligible for a recovery benefit with the child as the eligible relation or qualified relation, only the individual that the commissioner designates is eligible for the amount of the recovery benefit with the child as an eligible relation or qualified relation.

Amount of recovery benefit

- 242 (1) The amount of the recovery benefit for an individual who is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (1) is the greatest of the following:
- (a) if an individual has no qualified relation, the positive amount, if any, equal to $500 less 2% of the amount by which the individual's relevant income for the 2019 taxation year exceeds $62 500;
 - (b) if an individual has a qualified relation, the positive amount, if any, equal to $1 000 less 2% of the amount by which the individual's family income exceeds $125 000;
 - (c) $10, if
 - (i) an individual has no qualified relation and the individual's relevant income for the 2019 taxation year is equal to or less than $87 500, or
 - (ii) an individual has a qualified relation and the individual's family income is equal to or less than $175 000.
- (2) The amount of the recovery benefit for an individual who is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (3) is as follows:
- (a) if an individual has no eligible relation, $500;
 - (b) if an individual has an eligible relation, $1 000.

Application for tax credit

- 243 (1) An individual who wishes to claim the recovery benefit under section 241 (1) must file with the commissioner an application for the recovery benefit.
- (2) If the individual has a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner who is a qualified relation on December 18, 2020, the individual must claim that cohabiting spouse or common-law partner as the individual's qualified relation in the application.
- (3) The application must be filed in the form and manner, and contain the information, required by the commissioner.
- (4) An application under this section must be filed on or before June 30, 2021.

SECTIONS

39 TO 41: [Income Tax Act, Part 15 – continued]

Determination of tax credit

- 244
- (1) The commissioner must examine an application and other information or records filed under section 243 and determine whether the individual is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (1) or (3) and the amount of the recovery benefit.
 - (2) The commissioner may determine whether an individual is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (3) and the amount of the recovery benefit.
 - (3) The commissioner may redetermine
 - (a) whether an individual is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (1) or (3), or
 - (b) the amount of the recovery benefit.
 - (4) Subject to subsection (5), the commissioner must send to an individual a notice of determination after determining whether the individual is eligible for the recovery benefit and, if eligible, the amount of the recovery benefit.
 - (5) The commissioner is not required to send to an individual a notice of determination if
 - (a) there is no change in the amount of the recovery benefit for the individual after the redetermination, or
 - (b) the commissioner designates under section 241 (4) the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual as eligible for the recovery benefit.
 - (6) A notice may be in the form and sent in the manner determined by the commissioner.
 - (7) The commissioner
 - (a) is not bound by an application or other information or records supplied by or on behalf of, or in respect of an individual, and
 - (b) may determine the amount of recovery benefit despite the supply of the application or other information or records by or on behalf of, or in respect of the individual.

Payment of recovery benefit

- 245
- (1) An overpayment on account of an individual's liability under this Act for the 2019 taxation year is deemed to have arisen if the commissioner determines the individual is eligible for the recovery benefit.
 - (2) If an overpayment is deemed to have arisen under subsection (1), the Provincial minister must pay, out of the consolidated revenue fund, the amount of the overpayment.
 - (3) The amount of the overpayment is the amount of the recovery benefit determined under section 242.

SECTIONS

39 TO 41: [Income Tax Act, Part 15 – continued]

- (4) Despite subsection (3) of this section or section 16 of the Financial Administration Act,
 - (a) if after a redetermination the amount of the recovery benefit increases by less than $10, the amount of the increase in the overpayment payable is deemed to be nil, or
 - (b) a payment of an amount related to this Part of less than $10 must not be made, in any other case.
- (5) If an amount is paid under this Part to an individual and, after payment, the commissioner determines that some or all of the amount is to be paid under this Part to the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual, the amount determined by the commissioner as to be paid to the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual is deemed to have been paid to the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner of the individual.
- (6) If an individual is eligible for the recovery benefit under section 241 (1), the amount payable under subsection (2) of this section must be paid by electronic funds transfer.
- (7) Despite the Financial Administration Act and the Interest on Overdue Accounts Payable Regulation, B.C. Reg. 215/83, no interest is payable by the government with respect to the amount payable under subsection (2).

Notice to commissioner

- 246
- (1) An individual who receives the recovery benefit further to being eligible under section 241 (1) must file a notice with the commissioner if
 - (a) the individual is notified of a change in the individual's relevant income for the 2019 taxation year that would result in a reduction in the amount of the individual's recovery benefit,
 - (b) the individual has a cohabiting spouse or common-law partner who is a qualified relation on December 18, 2020 and the individual is notified of a change in the cohabiting spouse or common-law partner's relevant income for the 2019 taxation year that would result in a reduction in the amount of the individual's recovery benefit, or
 - (c) there is a change in who is claimed as the qualified relation of the individual.
 - (2) The individual must file the notice with the commissioner on or before the later of
 - (a) September 30, 2021, and
 - (b) the date that is 90 days after the individual is notified of the change referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b).
 - (3) The notice must be filed in the form and manner, and contain the information, required by the commissioner.

- (4) In addition to the notice, the individual must file with the notice any other information or records required by the commissioner.

Determination period

247 The commissioner may determine eligibility for the recovery benefit, or determine and impose any penalty payable under this Part, within the following time periods:

- (a) the later of the following:
 - (i) 3 years after the date the initial notice of determination is sent under section 244 [determination of tax credit];
 - (ii) the end of the day that is one year after the day that is the earlier of
 - (A) the day that the commissioner is notified under section 246 (2), and
 - (B) the day on which the commissioner receives notification from the taxing authority under this Act that the individual or the individual's cohabiting spouse or common-law partner has been issued a notice of assessment that has a change relevant to the calculation of the individual's recovery benefit;
- (b) at any time,
 - (i) if any individual has made any misrepresentation or committed any fraud
 - (A) in filing an individual's application, or
 - (B) in filing information or records under this Part,
 - (ii) to give effect to a waiver or cancellation of a penalty under section 251 [waiver or cancellation of penalty], or
 - (iii) to give effect to a decision of the Provincial minister under section 255 [appeal to Provincial minister] or a decision of a court under section 256 [appeal to court].

Overpayment cannot be attached or assigned

248 An overpayment payable under section 245

- (a) cannot be charged or given as security,
- (b) cannot be assigned,
- (c) cannot be garnished or attached,
- (d) is exempt from execution or seizure, and
- (e) cannot be retained by way of set-off under the Financial Administration Act.

SECTIONS

Imposition of administrative penalty

- 249 (1) The commissioner may determine and impose a penalty on an individual who is liable to a penalty under section 250.
- (2) If the commissioner imposes a penalty on an individual, the commissioner must send to the individual a notice of determination that specifies the amount of the penalty imposed.

Administrative penalties

- 250 (1) In this section, “excess payment” means
- (a) a payment under this Part for which the individual is not eligible, or
 - (b) an amount by which the recovery benefit that would have been claimed by the individual, if the amount of the recovery benefit had been determined on the basis of the information provided in the application, return, report, notice or other record, exceeds the recovery benefit for which the individual is eligible.
- (2) An individual who knowingly or under circumstances amounting to gross negligence in the carrying out of any duty or obligation imposed under this Part makes, or participates in, assents to or acquiesces in the making of, a statement or omission in an application, return, report, notice or other record filed with the commissioner that results in an excess payment is liable to a penalty equal to the greater of
- (a) $100, and
 - (b) the amount equal to 300% of the excess payment.
- (3) An individual who fails to file with the commissioner a notice in accordance with section 246 is liable, in respect of each failure, to a penalty of $10 for each day after which the notice was required to be filed under that section, to a maximum of $250.

Waiver or cancellation of penalty

- 251 The commissioner may at any time waive or cancel all or part of any penalty otherwise payable by an individual under this Part.

Interest payable to government under this Part

- 252 (1) If an amount is deemed under section 258 [individual to repay amount] to be an amount payable by an individual, the individual is liable to pay interest on the amount from the date the amount to be repaid was paid under this Part to the individual until the date of payment.

- (2) An individual must pay to the government interest on a penalty imposed under this Part as follows:
 - (a) in the case of a penalty under section 250 (2) [gross negligence], from the date on which the application, return, report, notice or other record was filed until the date of payment;
 - (b) in the case of a penalty under section 250 (3) [failure to file notice], from the date of the notice of determination that specifies the amount of the penalty imposed until the date of payment.
- (3) Interest payable to the government under this Part must be calculated at the prescribed rate and in the prescribed manner.

No interest if full payment within 30 days

- 253 Despite any other provision of this Part, if
- (a) a notice of determination or statement of account sent to an individual by the commissioner specifies an amount that is owing to the government under this Part by the individual, and
 - (b) the individual, within 30 days after the date on the notice of determination or statement of account, pays the amount owing in full,
- interest is not payable on the amount owing from the date on the notice of determination or statement of account until the date of payment.

Waiver or cancellation of interest

- 254 The commissioner may at any time waive or cancel all or part of any interest otherwise payable by an individual under this Part.

Appeal to Provincial minister

- 255
- (1) An individual may appeal the following to the Provincial minister:
 - (a) a determination of eligibility for or the amount of the recovery benefit under section 244 for which a notice of determination is issued;
 - (b) an imposition of a penalty under section 249.
 - (2) An appeal under subsection (1)
 - (a) must be made after April 20, 2021 and on or before the later of
 - (i) September 30, 2021, and
 - (ii) the date that is 90 days after the date on the notice of determination in respect of the matter being appealed, and
 - (b) must be made by serving a notice of appeal on the Provincial minister by mailing the notice to that minister.
 - (3) The appellant must set out in the notice of appeal a statement of all material facts and the reasons in support of the appeal.

SECTIONS

- (4) On receipt of all relevant information from the commissioner and the notice of appeal, the Provincial minister must
 - (a) confirm, reverse or vary the commissioner’s decision or determination, and
 - (b) notify the appellant in writing of the minister’s decision.
- (5) The Provincial minister may authorize any officer of the ministry to perform and exercise duties imposed and powers conferred on the Provincial minister by this section as may in the Provincial minister’s opinion be conveniently performed or exercised by that officer.
- (6) The performance or exercise by the officer authorized under subsection (5) of the duties or powers referred to in that subsection is of the same effect as if the duties or powers were performed or exercised by the Provincial minister.

Appeal to court

- 256
- (1) A decision of the Provincial minister under section 255 (4) in respect of an appeal to the Provincial minister under section 255 (1) may be appealed to the Supreme Court by way of a petition proceeding.
 - (2) The Supreme Court Civil Rules relating to petition proceedings, other than Rule 18-3, apply to appeals under this section.
 - (3) A petition must be filed in the court registry within 90 days after the date of the Provincial minister’s decision.
 - (4) In a petition filed under this section, the government must be designated “Her Majesty the Queen in right of the Province of British Columbia”.
 - (5) Within 14 days after the filing of a petition under this section, the petition must be served on the government in accordance with section 8 of the Crown Proceeding Act.
 - (6) An appeal under this section is a new hearing that is not limited to the evidence and issues that were before the Provincial minister.
 - (7) The court may
 - (a) dismiss the appeal,
 - (b) allow the appeal,
 - (c) vary the decision from which the appeal is made, or
 - (d) refer the decision back to the commissioner for reconsideration.

Irregularities

- 257 A determination made under this Part must not be varied or disallowed by a court because of an irregularity, informality, omission or error on the part of a person in the observation of any directory provision up to the date of the notice of determination.

SECTIONS

Individual to repay amount

- 258 If it appears from an inspection, audit, examination or investigation or from other information available to the commissioner that an amount has been paid under this Part to an individual who is not entitled to receive that amount, the amount paid is deemed to be an amount that became payable by the individual to the government on the day on which the amount was paid to the individual.

Liability for amounts owing to government

- 259 An individual is liable to pay to the government the following:
- (a) the amount by which the recovery benefit that was paid to the individual under this Part exceeds the recovery benefit that the individual is entitled to receive;
 - (b) the amount of any penalties imposed on the individual under section 249 [imposition of administrative penalty];
 - (c) the amount of any interest payable by the individual to the government under this Part.

Collection of amounts owing to government

- 260 (1) Division 2 of Part 7 [Recovery of Amounts Owing] of the Speculation and Vacancy Tax Act applies for the purpose of collecting an amount that is owing to the government under this Part, except that, in addition to any other necessary modifications, references in that Division to the “administrator” are to be read as references to the “commissioner” under this Part.
- (2) Neither the giving of a notice of appeal by a person nor a delay in the hearing of an appeal
- (a) affects the date an amount that is owing to the government under this Part and that is the subject matter of the appeal is payable under this Part,
 - (b) affects the amount of interest payable on an amount that is owing to the government under this Part and that is the subject matter of the appeal, or
 - (c) delays the collection of an amount that is owing to the government under this Part and that is the subject matter of the appeal, or any interest payable under this Part on that amount.

Powers of audit

- 261 Without limiting any provision of this Act or the federal Act, for the purpose of determining eligibility for the tax credit under this Part, the commissioner has powers equivalent to the federal minister under sections 231 to 231.5 and 231.7 of the federal Act, and for that purpose those sections apply.

SECTIONS

Delegation of powers

- 262 (1) The commissioner may authorize any other officer of the ministry to perform and exercise duties imposed and powers conferred on the commissioner by this Part as may in the commissioner's opinion be conveniently performed or exercised by that officer.
- (2) The performance or exercise by the officer authorized under subsection (1) of the duties or powers referred to in that subsection is of the same effect as if the duties or powers were performed or exercised by the commissioner.

Application of other provisions

- 263 (1) A tax credit under this Part is not to be considered in applying any of the following provisions:
- (a) section 31 [instalment payments: farmers and fishers];
 - (b) section 32 [instalment payments: other individuals];
 - (c) section 34 [returns, payments and interest];

57 Section 22 is repealed and the following substituted:

Arbitration for fair market value determination

- 22 (1) Within the time set out in section 21 (3), a person who receives a minister’s notice under section 19 (5) of a minister’s decision may, instead of appealing the decision under section 21, serve on the minister a notice of arbitration in which the person
- (a) requires that a determination of fair market value be made by arbitration in accordance with the regulations, and

SECTION 58: [Property Transfer Tax Act, sections 22.1 to 22.4]

- limits the arbitrator’s jurisdiction to determinations of fair market value;
- requires the minister to advise a person who serves a notice of arbitration requiring the determination of a matter other than fair market value that the matter may not be determined by arbitration and that the person may either continue to require that the fair market value determination be made by arbitration, or commence an appeal of the decision to the Supreme Court;
- requires an arbitrator who has made a determination of fair market value to refer the matter back to the administrator for reconsideration;
- provides a transition rule for the application of section 22 and authorizes the Lieutenant Governor in Council to repeal that transition rule by regulation.

- (b) acknowledges
 - (i) that an issue other than a determination of fair market value may not be determined by arbitration, and
 - (ii) that, by serving the notice of arbitration, the person loses the right under section 21 to appeal the minister's decision to the Supreme Court.
- (2) Subject to section 22.2, a person who serves a notice of arbitration under subsection (1) loses the right under section 21 to appeal the minister's decision to the Supreme Court.

58 The following sections are added:

Jurisdiction of arbitrator

- 22.1 The jurisdiction of an arbitrator under section 22 is limited to determinations of fair market value.

Matters not suitable for arbitration

- 22.2 (1) If, after the minister receives a notice of arbitration under section 22 (1), the minister determines that a person requires the determination of an issue other than the determination of fair market value, the minister must advise the person
- (a) that the issue may not be determined by arbitration, and
 - (b) that the person may
 - (i) cancel the notice of arbitration and appeal the minister's decision to the Supreme Court within 90 days after the date on the minister's notice under section 19 (5) of the minister's decision, in accordance with section 21, or
 - (ii) continue to require an arbitration for the sole purpose of a determination of fair market value.
- (2) The minister may, in writing, delegate the minister's powers and duties under this section.
- (3) A delegation under subsection (2) may be to a named person or to a class of persons.

Arbitrator must refer decision back to administrator

- 22.3 An arbitrator under section 22 who makes a determination of fair market value must refer the decision of the minister under section 19 back to the administrator for reconsideration.
