- (1.1) If a meeting of the creditors of a society is an electronic meeting, the notices referred to in subsection (1) (a) and (b) must also contain instructions for attending and participating in the meeting by telephone or other communications medium.

59 Section 149 (2) is repealed and the following substituted:

- (2) If, within 30 minutes after the time set for holding a final general meeting under subsection (1), a quorum of voting members, as determined under section 82 [quorum], is not in attendance, the liquidator must adjourn the meeting to the same day and time in the next week and, if applicable, at the same location.
- (2.1) If the meeting adjourned under subsection (2) was an electronic meeting, the continuation of the adjourned meeting must be held in accordance with the instructions for attending and participating in the initial meeting by telephone or other communications medium that were contained in the notice for the initial meeting.
- (2.2) If, at the continuation of the meeting adjourned under subsection (2), a quorum is again not in attendance within 30 minutes from the time set for holding the continuation of the adjourned meeting, the voting members in attendance constitute a quorum for the purposes of that meeting.

60 Section 230 is amended by adding the following paragraphs:

- (j.1) respecting meetings of directors, members or creditors that are partially electronic meetings or fully electronic meetings, including
- (i) prescribing requirements for notice of those meetings, and
 - (ii) prescribing procedures for voting at those meetings;
- (j.2) prescribing circumstances in which a society must hold meetings of directors, members or creditors that are fully electronic meetings, even if the society’s bylaws provide otherwise; .
